SCHOOL is out for the summer and the numerous small boy roguish.

THE International Peace Congress called by the Czar of Russia is in session this week.

OUR thanks to the Juab County Republican for reference to its "Query" column to THE UTAH COUNTY DEMOCRAT for pure Democracy.

PRESIDENT SNOW is touring the south and kissing the banies. The venerable head of the church evidently has the true political instinct.

ENTERPRISING Park City citizens are arranging to put a strong base ball team in that city. Why couldn't Provo's business men take similar action?

THE Juab County Republican refers to its readers as "Dear headless reader or things as they are printed." We guess it's right, or they wouldn't take the Republican.

THE DEMOCRAT acknowledges receipt of invitations to Class of 1892 ball last evening and to company meeting this evening for L. D. S. base ball team at the B. Y. Academy.

CHRISTIANITY has rather a severe shock wags the ladies of the Rescue Home in Salt Lake assist in the abdication of the wife and embezzlement of the money of Heathen Chinese.

THE Living Issues says the Hayes case is a strong argument against capital punishment. We think it is the strongest possible argument in favor of that method of disposing of murderers.

N. W. McLEOD, formerly one of the best known newspaper men in Utah, has taken charge of the Record of Cardston, Alberta, Canada. The personal relations of the editor with "Mac" justifies us in recommending him to his new constituents and we most heartily wish him success.

THE Salt Lake Tribune is to be congratulated. After resolutions were adopted by the recent labor convention in Salt Lake endorsing the law-breakers in the Wanship, Idaho strike, the Tribune is condemned because it is opposed to such work. Honest men everywhere must admit that the Tribune is right in its position.

THE last issue of the American X-Rays of Ogden announces the commencement of its seventh year; in the daily papers we see a statement to the effect that that journal has removed from Ogden and under what circumstances. We hope the latter is untrue and that Brother Smith and the X-Rays will continue in Ogden and prosper.

WE CONGRATULATE the Juab County Republican on a little latent political honesty when it refers to a Republican paper as "a red-hot gold bug, McKinley-Hanna trust organ," and admits that Republican papers have forsaken everything in their old platforms in order to "climb clear up to the front of the wagon alongside of Mark Hanna." Such is Republicanism. "Honest confession is good for the soul."

WE quote from the Miner:

"Oregon's new mining law makes it mandatory on all persons, companies or corporations employing miners to file with the county recorder and post in the mine office, the name or names of the owners, whether the work is being done as owner, lessee or agent, where the principal office is located, the name of the responsible representative, the day of the week or month when payments for wages or supplies are made, a statement of all mortgages or liens against the property and when due."

Judging from the character of some of Utah's mining legislation, such a law wouldn't be a bad idea here.

WHY CAN'T THEY COME?

In a recent letter to his mother, Bert Bosaid, one of our brave Provo volunteers, says:

"Quite a few rumors are afloat in regard to the time we are to be relieved, but I don't think our chances are very bright for a few months to come."

At some of our ultra-administration friends say that the volunteers want to stay there. Is it a fact? We would just again refer to some of our proofs to the opposite offered in our last Wednesday's issue. The boys are being illegally retained, they want to come home, yet this administration forces them to continue fight against freedom, contrary to their terms of enlistment and to the provisions of the United States Constitution.

THE BEE ON JUDGE BOOTH.

Or perhaps we might better say "about" him. About the appointment of Judge Booth to preside over the Fourth District court, we quote the Salt Lake Bee on the qualifications of the Provo "general." The Bee says:

"It is to be hoped that Judge Booth will make a good judge. But The Bee confesses that its confidence in his wisdom is shaken before it is made. He hasn't a judicial mind, if the past is any reflection on that portion of his make up. He is erratic, changeable and diversified in every dip, spur and angle of his mental and physical composition. His clothes do not fit him and his whiskers are untrimmed most of the time. His eye is dark and unsteady. His personal appearance does not indicate judicial quality, and while there have been some smart judges who did not pay strict attention to personal appearance, they have been scarce, mighty scarce."

"Booth is violent in opinion. He is said to be honest. When he arrives at an opinion he stands by it, because he thinks he is right, say his friends. Just so. Many a man has earned a reputation among his friends for honesty by just such conduct, when in truth and in fact all the balance of humanity ranked him down as an energetic jackass. He is noisy in debate which gives him the reputation with a few of being a man with pronounced opinions. He is a ranteer in argument and has immense lung power. But these are no qualities in a judge, who should be a calm, dispassionate individual."

"He is said to be a lawyer. For all of which we should be duly thankful. Perhaps that qualification may be the means of disappointing us in the opinion we have taken. Oracle Fratres.

"Really, and truly the Bee believes our own, ownest own governor could have made a better selection from the well known attorneys down south, billeted."

We are pleased to note the ability with which Judge O. W. Powers has manipulated nearly all of the State papers in favor of Harry Hayes, his client, and the convicted Pelican Point murderer, and a little notwithstanding the fact that no evidence has ever been introduced to prove the innocence of the murderer, Hayes, of the awful crime of which twelve men convicted him, and the people of the State, if they are honest with themselves, know he is guilty. Judge Powers is entitled to rank as a criminal lawyer par excellence. He makes the play pretty strong though when he tries to work the State for a pension for the convict.

Hobson as a Kissar.

And as a daring and competent naval officer has obtained a world wide reputation, but it is no greater than that of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway as a carrier to the comfort and safety of the general traveling public. Being the short line between Omaha and Chicago, and running the finest trains between those points, it is natural that they should have obtained that reputation.

Our trains are all lighted by electricity, heated by steam and solid fuel oil; consisting of palace day coaches, elegant chair cars, modern library cars, superb sleeping cars, and royal "A la Carte" dining car service, running over a rock blasted, steel rail track, on special fast time, giving you a service for comfort, safety and convenience not to be obtained by any other route. Try us once and be convinced. Ask your ticket agent for C. M. & S. P. tickets and take no other. Write for maps, time tables, etc.
